

Do you believe in superstition? Are you superstitious? Do you know any superstitions?

To get into the mood try to connect the country to its superstition:

1. Dropping your purse/ wallet on the floor means that you will become poor.
2. Lending salt to a neighbour is considered bad luck.
3. It is considered unlucky to get a hair cut on a Tuesday.

- a)  The Netherlands
- b)  India
- c)  Brasil

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

Let's take action.

OPEN your book on page 79.

READ the text The number 13.

Copy and check the meaning of these words:

- fear -
- to injure -
- crew -
- airline -
- superstitious -
- to refuse –
- to prove –

Form a word family (word formation) out of: INJURE (verb) and REFUSE (verb).

ANSWER the questions (task, page 79).

HOMEWORK: Write a short essay on your experience about superstition. The title is To be or not to be superstitious. Write up to 80 words.

Write it in a word document and send it to your English teacher by Friday, 15th May.

Enjoy the weekend. Stay safe.

Your English teachers